Part III: Financial Budget

Remarks:

- Schools applying for the FUND should organise at least one fruit and / or vegetable promotion activity on any preferred day(s) between November 2026 and May 2027.
- A maximum of HKD$2,000 will be awarded to successful candidates. The amount of money spent on fruit and / or vegetable procurement should not exceed HKD$1,600. While there is no upper limit on purchase of materials other than fruit and / or vegetable procurement, the total funding amount must NOT exceed HK$2,000.
- Since the DH does not encourage food as reward and the project should comply with Nutritional Guidelines for Campus Catering Activities (Appendix III and IV of the School Healthy Eating Promotion Fund Prospectus), no sponsorship will be awarded for the purchase of food items (except fruits and / or vegetables) and drinks that are being used as a reward, or any items that may encourage students to take food that are high in fat, salt or sugar content including gift coupons. In addition, sponsorship will not be granted for purchase of gift coupons of any kind or delivery fee of materials.
- If a school receives sponsorship from the Fund but fails to organise the fruit and / or vegetable promotion activity or submit complete supporting documents at the conclusion of the activity, its application will not be entertained in the next school year.
- The decision by HKCC and the DH on reimbursement or otherwise shall be deemed final and irrevocable in case of any dispute.
